Treasure's Report- Chris Pearne

+ ETP has $2,350.22 as of 10/31, 2011. No bills will be able to be paid until January when CSHA meetings resume.

+ Chris reported that the $25.00 check for Trail Trials had not been cashed. Char will look into that with Chris.

+ Char Schramm- Tom Brower's Memorial Ride on October 16 was amazing. He was a remarkable horseman, friend, and husband. April 18, 1925-October 5, 2011. Motion made by Char Schramm that ETP pay up to $150.00 for the meal ETP provided at the Memorial Ride.

ETP members had approved via email to pay half of the meal for the event. Motion made by Char that ETP pay Henry the expenses for the food for the event on October 16, 2011. Motion seconded by Joe Hoscheid. Motion carried.

Guest Speakers:

+ Boy Scout Horsemanship Belt Loop- Bob and Austin Ellison spoke to insure that full and complete information was reiterated for the Boy Scout Belt Loop for Horsemanship.

Saturday November 19 starting at 7:45- 8 am running until 4 pm. at Laramore Arena in Sky Country. If you have calm, sound horses please bring it to let the kids groom, learn and ride to earn their Horsemanship Belt Loop. Be sure to bring a buck for water and feed for your horse as this is an all-day event.

If you have a helmet that they may borrow, please bring it on Saturday. They are in need of helmets for the kids.

The Boy Scout event starts at 7:45- 8 am. Approx. 10 boys will be in each group running throughout the day. Lunch will be served at no charge. A Release of Liability and consent form will be signed by the parent/guardian before the child participates. This is a community volunteer event, not a sanctioned ETP event. The Ellison's wanted to thank you all in advance for your help with the worthwhile endeavor!

+ Trap- Elana Reidel is the CSHA Region 11 TRAP Chair. TRAP stands for Trail Awareness Award Program. She gave an overview of the TRAP program. The TRAP program earns hours for riding your horse. You are awarded for hours ridden. This is beneficial to the County and State as trail reports are documented and hours are logged to contribute to the State of California's database of trail usage. It is an honor system where the rider submits time ridden and trail. You need to be a direct member of CSHA to participate in TRAP. All ETP persons are direct members of CSHA. An annual fee for the TRAP program is $15.00.

Chairmen Reports:

Membership/Visitors- Helen Johnson

+ Marty Salzbrun, a friend of Randi Verin, joined us for the first time. We welcome her. Mike Flaegan also joined us for the first time. We welcome both of them! Margie Sivert attended ETP! We always love to have Margie attend. We are always glad to see her. Our long time ETP member Tricia Murdock was able to come to ETP. It was wonderful seeing her. Elana Reidel, our guest speaker, brought her partner, Bill Harrison. Welcome to you all!

Inventory- Louise Zircus

+ Louise has ordered long sleeved blue informal shirts. They are not in at this time. She is expecting them to arrive any day.

Located at Ingalls Arena in Norco- Saturday December 3rd. Sign Up sheet went around. If you have a horse that may be used arrive by 8:30 am so the horse can be tested on the loading ramp etc. If you are a helper or a walker, arrive at 9-9:30 am. There are 3 adults assigned to one child when the child is on a horse in the arena. However, many jobs are available from helping in the arena to fixing the lunches for the children, working in the eating area, etc. Do not wear your ETP shirt, as the kids tend to be afraid of the official status it represents.

+ Christmas with Santa- Henry Escalera

Location- Rubidoux High School- 8 am is report time. There will be between 1,200 -1,300 children in attendance throughout the event. Much help is needed for our part, which consists of keeping the kids in line, answering questions, watching the children carefully etc. If you were able to help, it would be so very much appreciated! Wear dress uniform.

+Thanks went out to Henry and to those that joined him for the help with the Harvest event!

+Trail Patrol/Maintenance- Joe Hosheid

+ Turning in your trail reports benefits the entire state and county. It generates grant money, records hours and trail usage for state and county lands to name a few of the benefits. Be sure to fill out or email your report to Janice Escalera.

+ No report

Legislation (Jurupa) - Henry Escalera-

- + The Coast to Crest Trail- Norco is in a holding pattern. The trail is being organized, completion date is 2014.
- + Van Buren trail seems to have been taken over by bicyclists. Different ideas are being looked at to make this more horse oriented.

New business:

- + The money that Joe Hosheid earned volunteering for ETP via his work, State Farm Insurance Company, needs to be earmarked in order to purchase specific items for ETP. Joe would like to have another Horse First Aid Kit purchased. The cost is approx. $100.00. Joe Hosheid motioned that ETP purchase a First Aid Kit for Horses, seconded by Char Schramm. Motion passed. Joe would like a committee to look at the different ideas and needs to use the remaining $400.00 left from the grant he earned. Ideas were discussed at the meeting.
- + Char Schramm made a motion for ETP to pay for a First Place Belt Buckle for the next CSHA Trail Trials State Championship Event. The cost is $100.00. Two of our ETP members competed in the state championship this year. Cindi Paine on Gambler (a green/first year horse) and Jack Jimenez on his horse, Jazz. They went up to Quincy to compete this year. The next State Trail Trials Championship will be in Central California. Motion seconded by Cindy Laurenson. Motion passed.

Old Business:

- + The Ellison’s Scout Belt Loop November 19 starting at 7:45–8 am at the Laramore Arena in Sky Country, The Ellison’s will put on class in horsemanship for the scouts to earn a Belt Loop. ETP members that would be interested in helping her on a volunteer basis please bring your horse(s), water buckets, feed, helmet, and willingness to help. She will talk on safety and grooming and the scouts will have to have a 20 minute ride supervised by an experienced adult horseman. She is expecting about 10 boys to attend each session. Approx. 70 boys could be fulfilling the requirements for their Belt Loop on Sat. Nov. 19. If interested in helping please give Wendy a call at 951- 360 -7731. A sign up sheet went around. This is not an ETP sanctioned event.

Open Discussion

- + Remember to renew your ETP and CSHA membership by December 31st. You may give your combined dues to Char on one check. If you give the dues to Char we will be able to track that you have paid. Sometimes at the State Level there is a delay and we are not aware until somewhat later.

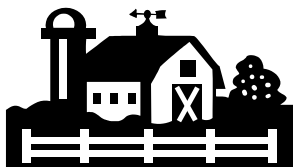

Brag for a Buck

- + Sondra rescued a horse 6 years ago from the racetrack. The Thoroughbred horse had been hurt. She doctored him back to health. She had to sell him but found out that he is still a healthy useful gelding.
- + Joe Hosheid bragged that his brother ran his funny car in a meet Joe attended. The car’s speed was rated at going 250 miles per hour!
- + Char briefly retold the story about Sergio Bracamontes, Tom’s friend, saving the day while we were all on the Memorial ride.
- + Henry said that a nephew of Cotton Rosser, a long time rodeo friend of Tom Brower’s, attended Tom’s Memorial ride and day. He had heard of it via a friend via a friend. Amazing!
- + Cindy Laurenson’s son married last May. She bragged that she would soon be a Grandmother!! Congratulations Cindy!!! Yea!!
- + Louise Zirges was so touched by Dave Backer’s poetry reading at Tom’s Memorial! She wanted to know if there was ever going to be a copy of the poetry reading that she could own. It appears that someone knew that Dave Backer would have a CD out soon. It was mentioned that The Thrifty Horse would carry it.

Meeting adjourned at 8:16 pm
Minutes respectfully submitted by Helen Johnson.

Dave Backer's Cowboy Poetry CD

I just checked with Janet Backer, Dave Backer's wife. Dave read his poetry at Tom's Memorial Ride and luncheon. Janet confirmed that the CD will soon be out and since one of the sponsors is The Thrifty Horse, they will carry Dave Backer's new CD. As he said during his reading and talk, the poetry will be put to music. I am looking so forward to this new CD. It will be Dave's first of many, I sincerely hope.
